THE REAL QUESTION.

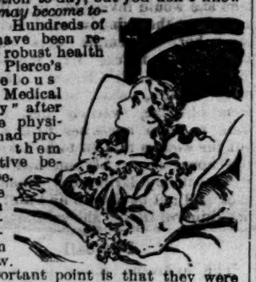
The real question of disease is "Can I be cured?" If you or anyone dear to you is losing strength, flesh, energy and vitality, if you are wise you will not spend time trying to figure out just what name to call the disease by.

It is almost impossible to draw the line where debility and weakness merge into consumption. Your trouble may not be consumption to-day, but you don't know what it may become to-morrow. Hundreds of people have been restored to robust health by Dr. Pierce's marvelous "Golden Medical Discovery" after reputable physicians had pronounced them consumptive beyond hope.



Were they in consumption? Nobody can ever know. The important point is that they were hopelessly ill but this matchless "Discovery" restored and saved them.

"I was not able to do hardly any work at all," says Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Vanburen, Kalkaska Co., Mich., in a most interesting letter to Dr. Pierce. "I had pain in my left side and back, and had headache all the time. I tried your medicine and it helped me. Last spring I had a bad cough; I got so bad I had to be in bed all the time.

"My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I told him if it was consumption they could not help me. We thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken one bottle the cough was stopped and I have had no more of it returning. Your medicine is the best I have taken."

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in a plain sealed envelope, absolutely free. His nearly 40 years experience as chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y., has made him an expert in chronic diseases.

...TURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WIZARD OIL

This great, soothing, curative remedy relieves pain, reduces swelling and inflammation, and heals up all open wounds and sores. It is the one perfect, modern dressing, or treatment, for a wound. Its quick use will positively prevent blood poisoning. Always keep it at hand.

Says Mrs. Jessie Farris, of Elizabeth, Ky.: "My little boy was badly burned on both legs, which were so drawn out of shape that he could not even crawl. I tried many remedies without relief, but finally Hamlins Wizard Oil made a perfect cure, and he can now walk and run. We thought we should have to amputate both his legs, and feel that Hamlins Wizard Oil saved his life." Price 50c and $1.00.

MAY BE A HOLY WAR.

The powers are now fully committed to the coercion of Turkey and the execution of a policy that promises to create a situation of the first importance to the world at large. An international fleet of about 20 warships will assemble in Greek waters a few days hence, and a so-called demonstration will take place either at the entrance to the Dardanelles or at some Turkish port in Asia Minor. The object is to compel the Sultan to accept a scheme of financial reforms in practically the whole of European Turkey. The scheme, in a nutshell, provides for the collection of taxes by local authorities, such as the village headmen, the whole to be under the supervision of a representative of the powers.

The Sultan regards the present demands as a direct infringement of his sovereignty—in effect, a notice to quit Europe. He will never yield; indeed, he cannot do so. His position has been fundamentally altered since he was coerced by Europe after the Russo-Turkish war and more recently by being compelled to relinquisn Crete.

He has since attained the object of his 30 years' ambition. Thanks chiefly to the Armenia massacres, which were allowed to go unpunished by Europe, and his victory over the Greeks, he has gained control over all Islam and has been recognized as the Calipha of Mohammedans in the entire globe.

The wonderful renaissance of Pan-Islamism has for its object a holy war against infidels, and the mass of its followers believe that this is at hand. Abdul Hamid, as the head of this immense force, cannot yield a fraction more of his sovereignty without his resistance and without summoning all of his faith to his assistance.

This, then, is the danger which the powers will incur if they resort to force in imposing their demands. A holy war would bleed Great Britain in India and Egypt and France in Algiers and Morocco, besides bringing about a wholesale massacre of Christians in Constantinople, which has so long been threatened.

It has been suggested that if a mere demonstration by an international fleet fails to induce the Sultan to yield they will force the Dardanelles and anchor off Constantinople. The best authorities say that this is next to impossible. Whatever else may be rotten in Turkey, the defenses of the Dardanelles are kept as complete and efficient as modern resources can make them.

The Porte has not yet replied to the ultimatum of the powers regarding Macedonian reforms, and the embassies at Constantinople are sending dragomans to Piraeus in preparation of the eventuality of a naval demonstration.

The Cost of the Navy.

The announcement that the Navy Department wants Congress to build three new battleships next year attracts attention to the enormous cost of the new navy that is being built. In the past year this country expended over $36,000,000 on the new ships that are now being built. The average battleship costs from $6,000,000 to $8,000,000. Enormous as is this first cost, it is practically only the beginning.

The report of the Paymaster General of the navy just issued gives some startling data as to what it costs to keep up our navy. The battleship Kearsarge cost the government for the last 12 months she has been in commission over half a million dollars. The Maine is even more expensive, for she cost more than $544,000; the Missouri cost over $530,000; the Wisconsin seems to be the most expensive of them all, for she cost over $591,000.

The cruiser Baltimore, in the last 12 months, has cost a little over $336,000. But the Brooklyn is almost expensive enough to rank in the battleship class, for she cost over $478,000 last year—a trifle more than the Oregon, which cost a little over $475,000.

The three boats which are kept at the disposal of the President, the Dolphin, the Mayflower and the Sylph—also cost a pretty penny. The Dolphin last year cost over $111,000; the Mayflower for the four months she was in commission cost over $52,000, while the Sylph, which is the pleasure boat which is used most frequently by Mrs. Roosevelt, cost $25,000 for the year.

Torpedo boats range from $25,000 to $50,000 a year and the collier Abarenda cost last year about $65,000. The total sum expended last year by the government for maintaining ships afloat was $19,931,933.37. In addition, the nine receiving ships cost the government about $3,500,000.

In addition to all these expenses, it cost $5,967,671.93 for repairs to the ships and equipage at home and abroad.

When you want a pleasant physic try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or no unpleasant effect. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts?" These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention.

Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some uterine derangement. Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the ablest specialists agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for woman's ills known to medicine.

The following letters from Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Cotrely are among the many thousands which Mrs. Pinkham has received this year from those whom she has relieved.

Surely such testimony is convincing.

Mrs. J. G. Holmes, of Larimore, North Dakota, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have suffered everything with backache and womb trouble—I let the trouble run on until my system was in such a condition that I was unable to be about, and then it was I commenced to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If I had only known how much suffering I would have saved, I should have taken it months sooner—for a few weeks' treatment made me well and strong. My backaches and headaches are all gone and I suffer no pain at my menstrual periods, whereas before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain."

Mrs. Emma Cotrely, 109 East 12th Street, New York City, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I feel it my duty to tell all suffering women of the relief I have found in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I commenced taking the Compound I suffered everything with backaches, headaches, menstrual and ovarian troubles. I am completely cured and enjoy the best of health, and I owe it all to you."

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN.

Remember, every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., her advice is free and cheerfully given to every ailing woman who asks for it. Her advice and medicine have restored to health more than one hundred thousand women.

Dresses Wounds With Glass.

Dr. Aymard, of London, writes to the Lancet advocating the substitution of glass for lint in dressing wounds. He describes the experiment with a piece of thick window glass, the edges of which were ground smooth. He smeared the glass with carbolized oil and applied it to a wound, which healed quickly without leaving a scar. The doctor contends that this method results in an immense saving in the cost of hospital practice. It is painless and the wound heals twice as quickly. It also enables the wound to be examined without removing the dressing.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

A Cough Syrup which drives a cold out of the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels is offered in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Clears the throat, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes. The mother's friend and the children's favorite. Best for Croup, Whooping-Cough, etc. A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels and works all cold out of the system. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

The Season's Fashionable Dress Stuffs.

Superb chiffon cloths of finest texture and luster lead the line of winter fabrics for fashionable street and carriage gowns. There is an indefinite distinction about the quality of these cloths which renders them beyond comparison with ordinary grades not only in smoothness of surface, but in colors and shades, many tints of which are confined to our special stock. Their wide range of colors and shades admits of their use for evening gowns and wraps, and their softness and pliability lend grace to any length of skirt or loosely falling wrap.

The broad windows in our new department supply full natural light in which to examine them; the roomy aisles and capacious counters all conduce to a manner of shopping and inspection to be experienced only in our house.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 20, 1905.

ONE OF the Washington papers devotes considerable space to what it regards as friction between the United States and Germany, brought about by trade relations, tariff and the attempts of the fatherland to eclipse this country in the South American trade. The writer goes so far as to make a comparison between the navy of Germany and that of the United States, as though hostilities were inevitable in the near future. There is every reason to believe that no such thing will take place, and many reasons could be produced to strengthen this standpoint. There is, for instance, too much at stake for either country to draw the sword. The commerce of both would be dealt a blow from which they would be long in recuperating. The United States has no desire to take such a risk, and there is every reason to suppose that Germany would be equally anxious to avoid a contest. The Kaiser is disposed at times to be domineering, but it is noticeable that he knows when to halt, as was shown in his recent action with France. Apart from all this, he knows Germany has enemies who would attempt to profit at that nation's expense should it become involved in war with a first-class power. France would naturally sympathize with the country arrayed against her old enemy, while England would give her moral support to the United States, if nothing more. The article referred to is intended for a purpose an no one need be alarmed. It has been supposed by many that the greatest conflict that has ever taken place upon the globe is destined to occur between the Teutonic and the English-speaking races for political and commercial supremacy. Such a thing is possible, but those at the head of both will count the cost before they precipitate such a war.

ANOTHER crisis in the history of the Panama canal undertaking was reached Saturday eveing, when the board of consulting engineers by a vote of 9 to 5 reached the decision that the great waterway should be of the sea-level type. If this action of the board is approved by the President, it will precipitate a new and probably prolonged and acrimonious debate on the whole question of the construction of the canal in Congress when the report embodying the action of the engineers goes to that body. This may be looked for, because the digging of a sea-level canal will take fully twenty years and perhaps longer, while conservative estimates of the difference in cost between a lock and sea-level canal run from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000. This would make the canal cost fully $500,000,000. This prospect of many years delay in the completion of the waterway and of a vast increase in its probable cost will be seized on by those who favor the Nicaragua route to reopen the whole question of Isthmian canal construction, thus insuring a long debate, especially in the Senate. From all that has transpired during the two years since the piercing of the isthmus was undertaken by this government the job is likely to be a bigger one than Congress or the American people imagined and the prophecy so frequently made that not a man living at the present time will live to see the canal completed, seems likely to be fulfilled.

AT OMAHA last week, Bartlett Richards, president of the American Cattle Growers' Association, and one of the wealthiest of the cattle men, pleaded guilty to an indictment for fencing government range lands, and was sentenced to pay $300 fine and spend six hours in the custody of a marshal. His partner, W. G. Comstock, made a similar plea and was given a similar punishment. Their fences which inclosed an area as large as the State of Rhode Island, are now being removed. The penalty was a farce and caused the culprits not the least inconvenience, so a repetition of the offence may be expected at any time. These are the lands which Col. J. S. Mosby three years ago was sent out by the President to reclaim and dispossess the unlawful land grabbers—the cattle barons. He made his report to Mr. Roosevelt who directed him to proceed with the dispossesing act, but before he could do so Senator Deitrich and others now of unsavory reputation, interfered and Col. Mosby was suddenly transferred to Alabama to look after some government timber!

AMERICANS who have arrived at Havana from the Isle of Pines are unanimous in asserting that the participants in the meeting of eighty men on November 11 had no idea that the so-called territorial officers would attempt to assume office. They say it was universally understood that their election was only a basis for an appeal to Washington and a newspaper advertising movement. That the Isle of Pines got the advertising all right none will dispute, but advertising, like everything else, can be carried too far, and the eighty men who engaged in the "enterprise" should be sent to jail, every one of them.

IT WAS stated in New York last night that the Hearst lawyers had collected evidence to show that Tammany used quite a sum of money in a corrupt manner in the election on November 7, and that this evidence would be turned over to Attorney General Mayer today for an inquiry. At the same time Mr. Hearst should tell how he spent the $67,000 which he swore he used for election purposes.

THE War Department has sold to a junk dealer for $400 twenty tons of the published documents and records made by General Wood in relation to the American occupation of Cuba. That was more than he reports were worth, though the printing and binding thereof cost the taxpayers many thousand dollars.

AT A DISTILLERY at Bradford, Pa., yesterday, 810,000 gallons of whisky furnished a spectacular fire, entailing a loss of $4,000,000. Great Scott! Was nobody there to save even that odd ten thousand gallons? We are right sure that all of it would not have gotten away had the fire been in Alexandria.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.

An interesting incident in connection with the consideration of plans for the Panama canal by the Board of Consulting Engineers has leaked out. M. Bunau-Varilla, the Frenchman who was engineer in charge of one section of the canal during the last days of the old French company, applied for permission to explain to the consulting board a plan of construction he had worked out. It was, in brief, that a lock canal should be first built and that then it should be gradually dug out to the sea-level and the locks removed. He claimed ships could go through in four years and that the enlargement of the canal could be accomplished without interrupting commerce. Bunau-Varilla was heard at great length and then the board unanimously rejected his plan as unfeasible and extravagant. Upon learning of this Varilla wrote a letter of complaint to President Roosevelt, in which he attacked the members of the board of consulting engineers, claimed that they were prejudiced against him, and warned the President against them professionally. In view of the fact that the members of this board are engineers of the highest standing in their respective countries, the President considered this attack so outrageous that he referred the letter to General Davis by whom it was submitted to the board. It raised a decided sensation among the members who were naturally indignant and at first it was proposed that some action should be taken upon it. This was, however, overruled but a decided coolness prevailed when Varilla next visited the board's rooms and he left town within the next day or two. General Davis said that the board will not take any collective action on Varilla's letter although he did not know what any member might do about it individually. The incident is believed to have effectually blocked Varilla's ambition to be one of the engineers of the Panama canal.

Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, who was one of the President's callers this morning, asserted that if Senator Foraker had not worked, and worked hard, for the republican ticket, the party would have lost the lower branch of the legislature. "Various persons have been making charges that this or that man did not do his duty, in the campaign" said General Grosvenor. "Now all I want to say is if Senator Foraker had not used all his influence, we would have lost the House." Gen. Grosvenor said that he was opposed to granting the request made by the Massachusetts men who were here the other day to urge the abolition of the duty on hides. "If those fellows in New England," remarked Gen. Grosvenor, "will agree to make a reduction on the prices of things that they make and we have to use out west why I'll be glad to help them get a reduction of duty. Isn't that a square deal?"

Andrew H. Allen, who has been librarian of the State Department for the last thirteen years, has resigned that position. It is probable that he will be succeeded by William McNeir, of Michigan, his assistant. Mr. Allen was appointed as a clerk in the department from North Carolina in 1880, was disbursing clerk of the Court of Alabama Claims, confidential secretary to the Second Assistant Secretary of State and became head of the Bureay of Rolls and Library in 1892.

So far as the State Department is advised everything is quiet in Santo Domingo today. This was the day, according to cablegrams published more than a week ago, when the revolutionists who are opposed to President Morales' rule were to break out and try to throw him out of office. There is little probability that such a movement would succeed in view of the strong force of American warships that are now in Santo Domingan waters ready to support the Morales government and maintain peace in the republic.

Republican leaders of Kentucky, including Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes, Chairman Dick Ernst, Congressman Edwards and others, were in consultation with the President today relative to appointments pending in the State to be made this winter. These include a number of collectorships and a district attorney. No definite conclusion was reached as to the personnel which is to have the President's approval.

The Lenora National Bank of Morehead, Kentucky, was closed on Saturday by the directors because of an unavoidable run, as stated by the cashier of the bank in a telegram of the Comptroller of the Currency. Resources and liabilities of the bank, by the last report, were placed as $74,959. The individual deposits were $42,824.

A settlement of the case of Wm. C. Albers and his brother, Chas. Albers, which is now in the hands of the courts in Nicaragua, is expected soon. These two men, with a servant, were convicted of resisting the authorities and sentenced to serve three years in jail. The State Department has been this afternoon advised that the Court of Cassation at Managua, to which Albers appealed, has confirmed the decision of the lower court which imposed a sentence of 32 months imprisonment on Wm. and Chas. Albers. Now that the final court has acted it is expected here that the Nicaraguan President will pardon the two brothers but will require that they shall leave the country.

The Secretary of the Treasury today gave out formal notice that the refunding of United States three per cent. bonds, loan of 1908-1918, and four per cent. bonds, funded loan of 1907, now proceeding under the circular of September 28th, 1905, will be discontinued after November 29th, 1905. Bonds that are intended for refunding must be forwarded so as to be received at the Treasury Department not later than November 29th.

Representative Mann, of Illinois, who last session introduced a bill abolishing the Panama Canal Commission and placing the entire project under the direct control of the President, announced this morning, after a conference with the President at the White House, he would reintroduce the measure early next session. Mr. Mann said that his bill has the support of the administration. If such legislation is passed it will cause second great upheaval in the canal administration. Mr. Mann, in the course of a severe criticism of the action of Consulting Engineers Davis and Burr in voting for a sea-level canal, said: "These men made a strong recommendation of first place for a lock canal and were two of the three men appointed as a special committee to go to the Isthmus and examine the Bohic dam. It was mainly on their recommendation that Congress appropriated the money to build the Panama Canal. Now they have joined with the foreign engineers for a sea-level canal, thus stultigying themselves. That's the way the money goes."

At the State Department it is said that the negotiations between this country and Germany relative to a new commercial treaty are progressing favorably. There is no friction. Secretary Root is consulting Senators and Representatives on this subject with a view of preparing a commercial treaty that may be ratified in Congress when it takes up the subject.

The inclemency of the weather today caused a rather smaller attendance at the races at Benning, still a fair crowd was present and the sport was fine, as has been the case every day since the opening. First race T. S. Martin, won; Zeala, second; Lancastrian, third.

William J. Ivey has been appointed postmaster at Catlett, Fauquier county, Va., vice John S. Richards, removed.

U. S. Consul General Wilber at Singapore reports to the State Department the boycott of American goods by the Chinese at that place, the existence of which was reported by him the other day, has been checked. Conditions at present, he says, have been improved owing to a police investigation ordered by the Governor. Inasmuch as Singapore is a British colony, and the Governor an Englishman, this is taken as an indicaton that the policy of Great Britain will be to suppress the boycott, as far as possible, in all places where she rules in the far East. While this may be a proof of the friendship she entertains to the United States it is also probably dictated by the fear that, if allowed to continue, the boycott movement might possibly extend so as to be directed against all foreign-made goods.

News of the Day.

Statistics of accidents is the Swiss Alps during 1905 show that 172 climbers were killed and a few more injured.

O'Donovan Rossa was welcomed to Cork, Ireland, yesterday where the people presented him with a house.

Testimony is being taken in St. Louis in the suit of Adolph G. Kreis against Miss Mary Jane Wilson for $25,000 damages for breach of promise.

Carl Hurford and his bride have been found dead in their home, in Newburg, Oregon, both having been shot. It is not known which of the two committed the deed.

It is said that Mr. Bryan, before he left this country on his travels, agreed with a syndicate of newspapers to write from thirty to fifty letters which will be paid for at the rate of $1,000 each.

Theodore Roosevelt, jr., was twice knocked out in the football game between the Harvard and Yale freshman teams at Cambridge, Mass., Saturday. He played on the Harvard eleven but did not last the whole game.

The town of Estillvilie was swept by fire yesterday. The Myrtle Hotel, the Addington House, a number of dry goods stores, and several houses were burned. The loss is $75,000. The fire originated in the Myrtle Hotel.

The New York Horse Show closed Saturday night. In its entries the Piedmont Stock Farm, at Upperville, Va., was fifth with six blue and one red. In the class for various hunt clubs competing with three hunters each, the Cameron Run Hunt, of Alexandria won the blue ribbon and received also the "H. C."

The business committee of the Interchurch Conference on Federation announced the draft of a plan for church federation at the conference in Carnegie Hall, in New York Saturday. The plan provides for a federal council in which each denomination shall be represented by four members and one extra member for each 50,000 communicants. The council is to act in the capacity of an advisory board, and to interfere in no way with the autonomy of individual denominations. The object is to be united action on social and moral questions, and to give spiritual counsel and promote fellowship.

A report was made to the Washington police yesterday of an attempt made Thursday to rob the residence of Mr. Robert N. Harper, president of the American National Bank, by two men who represented themselves to be telephone inspectors and whose description fits exactly that of the persons who obtained $2,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry at the residence of W. E. Boulter, 1624 S street northwest, the same afternoon. A gold watch, valued at $50 was taken at the Harper home, but the alleged thieves overlooked a bag containing $6,000 worth of Mrs. Harper's jewels which was in the same bureau drawer.

Five hundred Russian soldiers who were taken prisoners by the Japanese during the late war and who were bound for Vladivostok on board the Russian volunteer fleet steamers Vladimir and Boroneji showed signs of mutiny. The Russian officers applied to the Japanese government for troops and police officers and 100 constables boarded the Boroneji. Four Japanese torpedo-beat destroyers surrounded the two vessels. Vice Admiral Rojestvensky is on board the Boroneji. Many of the Russian prisoners in Japan do not wish to return to Russia. They have petitioned the authorities for permission to emigrate to the United States.

Henry D. Sanson, railway contractor, heavily interested in roads in Kentucky and coal mines in the West, died last night at his home in Saratoga, N. Y.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Emily J. Duke, widow of William J. Duke, of Albemarle, died Saturday at the residence of her son, R. W. Duke, in Charlottesville, in the eighty-seventh year of her age.

Governor Montague, has designated Thursday, November 30. Thanksgiving Day, and a holiday, as prescribed by law; and recommends that the people manifest their gratitude to God for his many gifts and great mercies during the past year.

Annie Moses, wife of Elias Moses, a merchant, overturned a lamp in her husband's store at Roanoke Saturday night, from which her clothing became ignited, burning her so badly that she died within a few hours.

Professor W. B. Ellis, of Buckingham county, is the possessor of a game hen that changes her feathers to suit the varying seasons. The hen, which was originally black, turns out annually about the first of May in a pure white dress, and this she again changes in the fall, resuming her rich coat about Thanksgiving.

Governor Montague has named Messrs. R. T. Barton, of Winchester; A. A. Phleger, of Montgomery, and J. Garland Pollard, of Richmond, delegates from this State to the convention to be held in Washington, February 19 next, to consider the question of uniform divorce legislation on the part of all the States in the union.

The State board of canvassers, consisting of the governor, attorney general, secretary of the Commonwealth, treasurer, and auditor, will meet in Richmond one week from today to canvass the vote cast at the last election for superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of agriculture, and members of the general assembly. The vote for governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, treasurer, and secretary of the Commonwealth will be canvassed by the general assembly when it convenes the second Wednesday in January, 1906.

One Hundred Persons Drowned.

A dispatch from London says that the Southwestern Railway's cross-channel steamer Hilda was wrecked yesterday morning off St. Malo, on the north coast of France, and it is feared that 100 or her passengers and crew were drowned.

The Hilda left Southampton Friday night for St. Malo with considerably more than 100 persons on board. Her passage was greatly delayed by a fog in the channel, and when nearing St. Malo she ran into a severe snowstorm, seemingly missed her course and foundered on the rocks off Jardin lighthouse, three miles from St. Malo. A passing steamer rescued five of the passengers and crew.

The majority of the crew and passengers were asleep at the time of the accident.

Many bodies have been washed ashore at different points on the French coast, some wearing life belts.

Reports received this morning from various points along the coast, state that 51 bodies of victims of the disaster have been recovered.

Thirty-six bodies have been washed ashore at St. Cast, France.

Fire in a Distillery.

At the A. Overholt distillery, in Bradford, Pa., yesterday 810,000 gallons of whisky furnished a spectacular fire, entailing a loss of $4,000,000. The main bonded warehouse was burned to the ground.

A steady northeast wind, which blew the flames toward the Youhiogheny river, saved the town of Bradford, the buildings of the H. C. Frick Coke Company and the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station from destruction.

The blue-tinged flames from the burning alcohol ascended more than 100 feet into the air. As barrels of old rye whisky on each of the four floors burst the blazing liquid was splashed in all directions. The main track of the railroad was kept clear of debris, and passenger trains shot past at such speed as to avoid damage from the intense heat.

It is supposed that the fire started either from spontaneous combustion or from a spark thrown by a passing locomotive down one of the airshafts.

The burned building was one of four warehouses containing 18,000 barrels of whisky eight years old. Each barrel contained 45 gallons. The loss is covered by insurance.

The Baptists.

At Saturday's session in Charlottesville the Virginia Baptist General Association was decided to hold the next meeting in Richmond, and Dr. C. S. Blackwell, of Norfolk, was appointed to preach the annual sermon a year hence; alternate, Dr. W. L. Pickard, of Lynchburg.

The report of the educational commission failed to recommend a site for the proposed woman's college. The committee reported that three communities have responded to bids for an eligible site, namely: Bristol, Charlottesville, and Richmond, but the committee is not yet ready to make a decision.

The resignation of Rev. George B. Hobday as superintendent of the Baptist Orphanage at Salem, after a continuous service of fourteen years, was accepted.

13, 14, 16.

On the ground that she was but 13 years old when married, and consequently not of legal years to contract a marriage agreement, Mrs. Edward A. Jones of Orange, N. J., was Saturday granted a divorce in the Supreme Court of that State. Incompatibility of temper is said to have been the real cause for the application. Mrs. Jones, who was Florence M. Deane, of West Orange, prior to her marriage, is but 16 years old at the present time. She was married, after an elopement, at 13, and at 14 was a mother. At 16 she is a divorcee. Her child, a handsome boy of 2 years, was awarded to the mother.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. ## Today's Telegraphic News

The Printers Win.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Nov. 20.—Judge Grinnan in the Chancery Court today dissolved the injunction brought by the local typothetæ to enjoin the striking printers from enticing away non-union men. The decision of the court is a victory for the strikers.

Judge Leake Elected.

Richmond, Nov. 20.—Judge William J. Leake, who has for some months been acting president of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and the Washington Southern Railroads in the place of the late Maj. E. T. D. Meyers was today elected president of the two roads at the annual meeting of the stockholders, which was held at the Byrd Street Station building this afternoon. There will be no change in the officials of the roads, except that President J. M. Barr, of the Seaboard Air Line, will take the place in the directorate of Mr. N. S. Meldrum, who has resigned.

Conditions in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 20.—The most noteworthy feature of the strike which has just been brought to a termination is that the social democrats have emerged from the struggle with greater influence than they expected before the strike was inaugurated. They have shown Count Witte that the workmen have been ready for action and increased influence.

Baku socialists were able to make such a demonstration of force that the Governor was forced to agree to the creation of a militia force and the abolition of martial law.

The Zemstvo congress, now meeting at Moscow, considers that the success of the socialists constitutes the most serious blows struck at Premier Witte. Pessimists believe that he will resign and even the most hopeful citizens believe that he must make decided changes in his policy if he is to continue in office.

The strike came to a close today. Workmen everywhere are returning to their positions.

Warsaw, Poland, Nov. 20.—Advices received today from Lodz state that troops yesterday fired on the people there, as the result of a revolutionary demonstration during a church service, killing three persons and wounding one. While the church service was on in one of the large churches the congregation sang revolutionary songs. Troops were called out and surrounded the building. The women and children in the church were ordered to leave and all the men, numbering about 500, were placed under arrest. A large crowd collected about the church, and refused to obey the orders to disperse. The troops finally fired four volleys into the crowd, with the result stated.

London's Unemployed.

London, Nov. 20.—Another remarkable demonstration on the part of the unemployed poor of the city for the purpose of showing their dissatisfaction with the attitude assumed by the government toward their demands for relief occurred here today. Thousands of men who have been unable to secure work formed in procession and marched through the street to Hyde Park where a meeting was held. Violent speeches were made and a resolution presented in which the unemployed declared unending war on the "capitalist system" which condems poor and willing workers to idleness and starvation. The demonstration was arranged by the Central workers. Ten thousand men gathered from all boroughs of London, assembled on the embankment from where the march to Hyde Park was begun. A great crowd of spectators collected to view the spectacle. A large force of police was called out on special duty to prevent violence, but the workmen gathered quietly and there was no disorder.

Draped Font in Mourning.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Rev. F. X. Sinclair, rector of St. Peters and St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church, in this city, has selected a novel method for voicing his protest against race suicide. A week ago yesterday, "Baptism" was made the subject of a most pointed sermon, and yesterday when the congregation entered the church they found the baptismal font draped in white and black. Father Sinclair refuses to discuss the matter at all, but the meaning is significant, taken in connection with the preaching of the sermon referred to and the attention called to in the fact that there had not been a single baptism in the church for a period of six or seven weeks preceding the draping of the baptismal font.

Norway's New King.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Nov. 20.—An enthusiastic demonstration in honor of Norway's new King, Haakon VII., formerly Prince Charles of Denmark, and his royal consort, occurred this afternoon, as the Norwegian ruler left the Amalienburg Castle following the formal ceremony by which the crown was accepted on behalf of Haakon. When the reception given by King Christian in houor of the Norwegian deputation, which came here to make the formal offer of the crown to Haakon, had concluded, the new king and queen left the palace in their carriage to drive to their own palace.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Baltimore, Nov. 20.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, was held at the general offices here this morning, with Oscar G. Murray, president of the company, presiding, and C. W. Woolford, the secretary, acting as secretary of the meeting. The only change in the board of directors was the election of John B. Thayer, of Philadelphia, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sutherland M. Prevost.

Fresh Outrages Against Jews.

Vienna, Nov. 20.—Confirmation of the reports of fresh outrages against the Jews at Kishineff has been received here. According to the advices received, Hooligans, armed with clubs, made an attack on the remaining Jewish shops not devastated in the recent outbreaks, and set fire to the buildings. The young Jews of the town, assisted by students, offered desperate resistance to the rioters and many of them were killed or wounded.

Cleared for Action.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, 25 cents.

A leading Madrid paper says that King Alphonso will be married to Princess Ena of Battenburg in May, 1906.

No Fraud.

New York, Nov. 20.—The New York World has concluded to separate investigations to find out if there was fraud during the recent municipal elections and reaches the conclusion that there is no reliable proof of the ballots being tampered with after the polls had closed and that if any fraud were committed it was in the illegal registration of persons not entitled to vote.

To be Tried for Treason.

Berlin, Nov. 20.—News comes from Gleiwez, Prussian Silesia, that the trial of the well known Polish agitator, Wycisk, and twenty-three other Poles on charge of high treason will begin today.

The specific charge made against the men is of conspiring to free Poland from the rule of Germany, Russia and Austria, and to re-establish the ancient undivided kingdoms of Poland.

Assessments Increased.

Portsmouth, Va., Nov. 20.—In the face of legal opposition from the Seaboard Air Line Railway the State Corporation Commission announced today its decision to increase the tax assessment on the real estate holdings of the road in this city $107,000. The holdings of the Southern Railway here increased $9,000, and the Atlantic Coast Line, $30,000.

Prince Louis Sails for Gibraltar.

New York, Nov. 20.—After a twelve days visit where he and his men were royally entertained, Prince Louis of Ratenberg and his second cruiser squadron sailed from New York, today. Their destination is Gibraltar. The interchange of visits between the Prince and Admiral Evans before the former's departure was accompanied by the usual formalities.

Minneapolis Sails for Kronstadt.

Cherborg, Nov. 20.—The U. S. cruiser Minneapolis sailed this morning for Kronstadt, Russia, where, it is reported, she has been sent to protect American citizens in case they need assistance.

Died from His Wounds.

Berlin, Nov. 20.—A despatch received today from South Africa says that Henorik Witbor, who headed the uprising of the Herreros in that region, has died from wounds received during a recent conflict between his forces and German troops.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 20—The feature of the stock market so far has been the quiet, but persistent, accumulation of many stocks without any aggressive effort to advance prices. In many cases in which advances have occurred, the gains have been made because of the complete exhaustion of the supply around current figures. In the recent trading the market has been strong and active at advances of ½ to 2 points from the beginning.

Fire in a Lodging House.

The worst fire that has occurred in Great Britain for many years broke out in Glasgow, Scotland, yesterday, in a cheap lodging-house for men, in Watson street, and resulted in the loss of 39 lives and the severe injury of many others.

An extraordinary scene was created by a procession of almost naked men rushing out of the entrance to the building, and, against their frantic efforts to escape, the firemen had actually to fight for admission.

Reaching the upper floors the firemen found that the narrow passages were becoming congested with men who had dropped in the floors overcome by smoke. The fire, however, was confined to the fourth floor, and as soon as the firemen were able to get to work it was speedily extinguished.

The dead were mostly workmen in the prime of life. They presented a horrible spectacle, their blackened faces bearing evidence of terrible struggles to escape.

Many men were sleeping in the attic floor above the burning fourth floor, and these had narrow escapes. The flames burst through the floor, and it was impossible for the men to descend.

The windows were securely fastened and the men had to break them so that they could climb through to neighboring roofs.

It appears to be the custom of these lodgers to sleep in a nude condition and the march of the survivors to the police station was a fantastic one. Some had snatched the covers of the beds and others their trousers, while many wore nothing.

The local authorities had to be called upon to supply the men with clothing and warm meals.

Young Lady Rewarded.

An usual case of benevolence and appreciation has come to light in Richmond. Miss Winnie Starke, the young daughter of Jefferson Starke, south Pine street, two months ago rushed to the assistance of an aged lady, who had fallen in the street, helped her to her feet, brushed the dust from her garments, picked up and replaced her scattered packages, modestly gave her name to the old lady upon request, and thought no more of the matter. In the course of a few days she received a letter postmarked Baltimore, Md., and signed by Miss Beesie Crane, recalling the incident, and telling the girl to call at a furnishing house in the city and receive a package. Miss Starke did as requested, and was presented with a handsome cloak. At intervals since that time she has been receiving letters from the strange old lady, each one telling her to go to some well-known house and receive some handsome article. The girl now has a very handsome wardrobe as the result of a little kindness to an aged person. The last letter received bade the girl good-by for a time, saying that Miss Crane was about to sail for Europe, but stating that her little friend and her kind act would not be forgotten.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that they declared were entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

End of Long Vigil.

Waiting and watching to the end for a missing son, Mrs. Naomi Welles has passed away at her home in Omaha. Her death was caused by old age. Mrs. Welles had nightly sat in her little cottage on a hill with a lamp burning brightly in the window in the hope that her son, who left her eight years ago, returning, would see the glow in the darkness and come back to comfort his mother. The son left home to make his fortune. He floated down the river in a fish boat with two other young men. Some time afterward Mrs. Welles received word that her boy had been murdered in St. Joseph. She left to bring the body home, but, after viewing it, declared that it was not that of her son. From that day until she died she did not hear from the son she loved. Poverty-stricken and supported by the contributions of kind-hearted neighbors, Mrs. Welles had a hard time. But no matter how she was compelled to go without food she would invariably light the lamp and sit at the window until sleep overcame her. Attempts were made by neighbors to induce Mrs. Welles to go to the Old People's Home, but she refused Later, when illness, resulting from old age, overtook her, attempts were made to move her to a hospital, but the woman refused to be taken from the house where her son had left her. "What if my darling boy should come back and not be able to find me? I could not think of that," she said.

To Be King Haakon VII.

The Norwegian parliament, with 116 members present, Saturday evening unanimously elected Prince Charles of Denmark, son of Crown Prince of Denmark, and a son-in-law of the King of England, King of Norway, and a committee was appoited to wait on him and apprise him of the action taken. Immediately after the result was declared a royal salute of 42 guns in honor of the new king was fired at the fortress. Prince Charles at night notified the Storthing that he would take the name of King Haakon VII and would confer on his son the name of Olaf.

May Decline.

A letter has been received in Lynchburg by a member of the committee appointed to notify Dr. A. S. Llyod, of his selection as bishop-coadjutor of the diocese of Southern Virginia of the Episcopal Church from that divine, in which he notifies the committee he will give his decision in the next ten days. The letter does not give the slightest hint of what Dr. Lloyd will do in the premises. There is a growing belief, however, that he will not accept the office.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:48 a. m. and sets at 4:43 p. m. High water at 1:54 a. m. and 2:29 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

Paving Bills.

The verdict of the jury in deciding in favor of the defendant in the case of Ticer vs. the City Council and the fact of Judge Nicol declining to set such verdict aside are favorably commented upon by many citizens. The equities are strongly upon the side of the city and, but for the constitution restricting improvement assessments, all concerned would have settled their paving bills willingly. This is shown by the fact that the property owners on King street, from Royal to the river, settled their bills amounting to $5,330.04. The two or three owners of property on Fairfax street from King to Printer's alley paid $526 and the property owners on Alfred street from King to Queen promptly settled bills amounting to $3,725, the trustees of the Lutheran Church asssuming a debt of $223 in such settlement. Only recently Royal, Prince and Lee streets have been completed, the property owners paying their proportionate share (before the work was started) of something over $4,000. On these streets it will be observed nearly $14,000 has been expended, or paid by owners of abutting property. The King street work, from Royal to Fayette, exclusive of the amount paid by the W., A. & Mt. V. Railway Co., represented an expenditure of $22,317.55. In distributing the cost an arbitrary appraisement of benefits of two-thirds of the costs was not followed, as many suppose, and this is evidenced by the fact that the city was apportioned $10,132.78 and the abutting property $12,184.77. Of this last named sum only about $4,000 is unpaid, and of this $4,000 notes for the entire amount less $266.29, are now in the hands of the tax collector. The $266.29 represents assessments on two pieces of property, one amounting to $126.79 and the other $139.50. Those in a position to know say that the trouble and law suits would never have been started but for a few overzealous persons who failed to appreciate the discouraging effects it would have in the efforts to improve the streets. Indeed, Collector Gorman stated on the witness stand that the plaintiff in the suit had expressed no unwillingness to pay his bill, but a not unnatural desire to recover his money in case others were not made to pay. That the property all along King street has advanced in value since this paving was laid is claimed and not disputed. That the late State assestment on the property was increased but little, if any, is also not denied. Would it be wrong for all owners who have given notes to pay them, and thus place themselves with those in the city who have paid more than $21,000? Many think this would be creditable, and would be an example that would have its effect in the further laying of modern streets.

Rammed a Freight Train.

South bound electric motor car No. 19 was seriously damaged about four o'clock yesterday afternoon by colliding with a Southern Railway freight train at the intersection of Wilkes and Royal streets. The freight train had emerged from the tunnel on its way to the depot and was passing Royal street when the collision occurred. The front of the electric car was knocked out and thrown from the truck and the motorman, Willian M. Power, was seriously cut on the head by flying glass and splinters. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment. The other members of the crew and the passengers escaped injury. The accident is said to have been caused by the motor car sliding on the rails after the brakes had been applied. It is customary for electric trains to come to a stop before reaching this intersection and for one of the crew to walk ahead, look into the tuunel and to the west to satisfy himself that the track is clear. Had the electric car reached the intersection a few seconds earlier yesterday evening and been struck fairly by the locomotive of the freight train there is reason to believe that everybody aboard the former would have been killed.

Commotion Among Fishermen.

A letter from Comorn, Va., says: The fishermen along the Potomac, in King George county, have been thrown in a state of excitement and confusion by a notice, or warning, from Maryland that the water along King George shore, where these fishermen are, and long have been, operating, does not belong to Virginia. According to the statement made by fishermen thus notified, it seems that, under the recent survey of the Potomac river, Maryland claims the water and fishing grounds just off the King George shores, of which our people have had undisputed use and privileges ever since fishing became a business here. Some days ago a Maryland lawyer came over and informed the King George fishermen that their nets were in Maryland water, according to the late survey, and that they are fishing in violation of the law.

It is held here that if this claim is valid and is sustained, it will work incalculable hardship on this country. It would deprive a large and important class of good citizens of employment and a means of support, and take from the channels of circulation thousands of dollars annually.

Must Pay.

People who expect to vote for members of the council and board of aldermen at the primary to be held next year will have to pay their poll-taxes prior to the second Tuesday in December of this year. That will be six months prior to election, and those who fail to pay before that time will lose their votes. The law is that none shall vote in the primary who have not paid their taxes and are qualified to vote in the general election to be held in the month of June for members of the city government. In this connection it is fair to say that people who have to pay taxes this year will have to pay 5 per cent. penalty in case they do not pay prior to December 1, next, as on and after that day the penalty is added by law. It is better to pay all at one time and thus escape the loss of a vote and the addition of the penalty.

Killed by a Train.

The body of Frank De Lane, of Del Ray, Alexandria county, was found lying beside the railway tracks at Brick Haven early yesterday morning. The head and one leg were severed and the body was otherwise horribly mangled. De Lane went to Washington Saturday night to attend a theater performance, and it is presumed that he missed the last car for Del Ray and started to walk home when he was struck by a train. De Lane was about thirty-five years of age and he leaves a wife and two young children. The widow is a daughter of Joseph A. Kremer, who conducts a bakery in Del Ray, and the dead man was employed by his father-in-law. An inquest is being held over the remains this afternoon at Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking parlors.

"Gifted with Spiritual Science."

The only case before the Police Court this morning was that of a colored woman named Julia Whitefield, who had been arrested by Officer Nicholson on a charge of disorderly conduct. She was fined $5 During the examination of the case it was alleged that the woman obtained money by telling fortunes. In attempting to rebut this charge the accused said she was not a fortune-teller according to the ordinary meaning of that term, but was gifted with spiritual science, and that her customers were not compelled to pay fees, but did so at their own discretion. Justice Caton told Julia that should she practice her art in future she would be required to take out a license costing $100, and should she neglect to do so she would be arrested and sent to jail.

Business Men's League.

There was a small attendance at the meeting of the Business Men's League last Saturday night. Mr. W. H. May presided. No business was transacted and the league adjourned to meet at M. B. Harlow & Co.'s office this morning. This morning the league reassembled with a large attendance, the president in the chair. After a consideration of the present condition and prospects of the league, on motion of Judge Norton, a committee, consisting of Messrs. Gardner L. Boothe, M. B. Harlow and J. W. May, was appointed to wait on the business men and associations of the city and to secure an increased membership. The meeting then adjourned.

A Guaranteed Attraction.

Laughter is better than medicine, and in "The Real Widow Brown" not an instant is permitted to pass unenlivened by mirth. According to the plot, a masquerading young man impersonates an attractive young widow in a manner to discourage the attentions of an old deacon, in order to get into the good graces of his two comely daughters, and the complications which follow are extremely ludicrous. Uncommonly good specialties are introduced and add to the general enjoyment and merriment. This excellent attraction will appear at the Opera House tomorrow night. The attraction is guaranteed by Manager Harper.

Mission.

The People's Mission, which is working under the auspices of the Baptist Church, held their first service in the building corner of Pendleton and Columbus streets yesterday afternoon. Mr. H. K. Henderson is acting superintendent in the place of Capt. J. P. Wooddy, who is confined to his home by illness. The next service will be a prayer and praise service tomorrow (Tuesday) night at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. A. J. Groves, sr., will conduct the service. Much interest is felt in the work at this point, and a movement is already on foot to put up a chapel building, and a committee is now at work with this object in view.

Unveiling of Tablet.

The Second Presbyterian Church was well-filled last night when the exercises in connection with the unveiling of the tablet in memory of the late Rev. H. C. Slaymaker took place. The services were conducted by Rev. F. J. Brooke, who paid a fitting tribute to the deceased and also delivered an appropriate address. The music on the accasion was greatly enjoyed. As has heretofore been stated, the tablet is to be placed in the cabin of the new steamer Lapsley, which is being built in Scotland for mission work on the Congo.

Writ Refused.

The Court of Appeals has refused the application for a writ of error by the attorneys of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company in the case of Miss Ida Breen, who was last March injured in the accident on the electric railway just west of this city. The jury in the circuit court for the county brought in a verdict for $3,000 which was reduced to $2,000 by Judge Nicol. The defendant company applied to the Court of Appeals for a writ, but, as stated above, this has been denied.

Rechabites.

Perseverance Tent, No. 1098, I. O. R., will hold its regular meeting tonight in Sarepta Hall. A large number of applications will be acted upon and several candidates will be initiated. An interesting programme will be rendered under the good of the order. A delegation from Onward, Purity, Golden Rule, and Eastern Tents will pay a fraternal visit to this tent tonight.

Opening of New Depot.

The new union passenger depot building has been opened for public service. Trains have been using the new tracks outside of the city limits for some time, but passengers were accommodated in a temporary frame structure, which will now be removed. The new building is heated by steam, and will in a short time be lighted by electricity.

Yesterday.

Yesterday was a quiet Sunday, the cold and rainy weather keeping most people within doors. The congregations in most of the churches were not large. The dismal weather continued throughout last night, and was followed by snow this morning.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Personal.

Major Bentley Mott, recently military attache at St. Petersburg, is visiting his relatives in Leesburg.

Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, of the Methodist Protestant Church, has been selected by the Ministers' Association to deliver the sermon at the union Thanksgiving services to be held in the Second Presbyterian Church, at 10:30 o'clock Thanksgiuing Day.

Mrs. J. P. Agnew and family have returned from their country place near Accotink, where they spent the summer and fall.

Mrs. Hunter Holmes McGuire, of Richmond, has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Frances Baldwin McGuire, to Mr. Wortham Guy Davis. The wedding will take place Wednesday evening, November 29, at 6:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride.

Bishop Alfred M. Randolph, of the diocese of Southern Virginia, last night preached in St. Paul's Church. While in the city he was the guest of Captain Herbert Bryant.

Ex-Mayor George L. Simpson has been suggested by some of his friends as a candidate for the Board of Aldermen to fill a vacancy which will exist in that body on the first of next January by the retirement of Alderman Fisher, who has been elected Corporation Attorney.

Colonel and Mrs. P. Henry O'Bannon and Mr. Harrie Smoot are entertaining a large house party in their beautiful home in Sperryville, Rappahannock county, this week. Among their guests are Mr. and Mrs. William B. Smoot, of Alexandria. Colonel and Mrs. O'Bannon gave a beautiful dinner in honor of these guests last Wednesday evening. The other guests were: Mr. Howell M. Miller, of "The Maples;" Mr. John H. Fletcher, of "Erin;" Miss Louise M. O'Bannon, daughter of the host and hostess; Mr. Harrie Smoot, Mr. Carroll Menefee and Dr. Edward C. Johnson, of Sperryville.

Deaths.

Mrs. Susan E. Fuller, widow of Rev. R. W. Fuller, D. D., and mother of Mrs. H. C. Ausley, and Mr. R. W. Fuller, of this city, died at the former's residence on Prince street, near Alfred, early last night after a brief illness. The deceased was 77 years old. She was a daughter of the late J. T. and Mary T. Pope, and was born in Helena, S. C. For the past few years Mrs. Fuller had lived in this city where her noble character, her many Christian virtues and her kindly disposition had won for her a host of friends, whose sympathy now goes out to those by whom she was so dearly loved. Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, Rev. Drs. Brooke and Fisher officiating. The remains will be subsequently forwarded by Demaine & Son, undertakers, to Atlanta, Ga., her former home, for interment.

Mrs. Mary J. Hanzmon, widow of Robert Hanzmon, died at her residence in this city yesterday. The deceased was 71 years old.

Walter Osgood, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Padgett, died of membranous croup at his parents' residence on north Fairfax street last night.

Miss Mary Teresa Cleary, daughter of the late James K. Cleary, died on Saturday at her home in Washington. She was a relative of the late Donald McLean, of this city, and had a number of friends in Alexandria.

Held Up.

Mr. George Emmert, bartender for Mr. Andrew Devers, was held up and robbed of his pistol by two men between 12 and 1 o'clock last Saturday night in the northern portion of the city. Mr. Emmert had closed the bar and started toward his home when two men suddenly emerged from an alley and pinioned his arms. The highwaymen, supposing he had money in his possession, searched his pockets, and, finding none, took possession of Mr. Emmert's pistol. They then released him and vanished. The hold-up was reported to Officer Mayhugh and he is endeavoring to identify the thieves.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Alexandria Tent, No. 2, K. O. T. M., meets tonight.

In the Corporation Court today Mr. Frank C. Creighton qualified as administrator of the estate of his deceased mother, Mrs. Hattie V. Creighton.

A LAXATIVE
Cough Syrup

THE NEW IDEA
THE ORIGINAL
"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."
KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR
Cures Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.
Cures Coughs by cleansing and strengthening the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes.
For Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Children like it.
Put up in 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottles at the Laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co. Chicago, U.S.A.

Slips of Artists.

It is a part of the seeming ill luck belonging to circumstance that an artist may spend time and genius on a piece of work and then fail conspicuously in some detail.

There is a story that one royal academician gave a hand five fingers and a thumb and that another painted a live lobster bright red.

The clever Goodall had been engaged in painting a number of laborers dragging a huge stone across the desert, and a man of science, entering the studio, said to him:

"I say, Goodall, if you want those fellows to pull that stone you must double their number. It would take just twice as many."

But it is not modern painters alone who slip up on points of accuracy. Even Albert Durer, in a scene representing Peter denying Christ, painted one of the Roman soldiers in the act of smoking. Turner put a rainbow beside the sun, and in another picture he got woefully tangled in the ship's rigging.

Incident of the Reign of Terror.

A dramatic incident of the reign of terror in France was the saving of her father's life from the guillotine by Mlle. de Sombreuil. M. de Sombreuil and his daughter were condemned to death at the time of the September massacres and were waiting in the cart, surrounded by the mob, for their turn to mount the scaffold. Mlle. de Sombreuil turned to the crowd and asked what harm a weak old man like her father could do to the nation. Some of the men answered that if she would drink a glass of blood to the nation they would let him go and passed up a glass. She drank it down immediately. The crowd took her and her father from the cart. They escaped and made their way to England. She thought at the time she drank blood, but afterward she concluded that it was red wine, for she saw no one stoop to fill the glass. To her death she was never able, however, to see red wine in a glass without a shudder.

An Odd Will.

A correspondent sends us a copy of an old will on record in the office of the ordinary of Lumpkin county, Ga. After appointing three executors, he "solemnly" requests them "to law N. Nicholson to the full extent of the law. I impute my cramp colic to his injustice to me." He further requests that "they pay themselves and our attorneys and spend as much as is necessary in buying a slab, and place on it: 'Here lie the remains of S. Douglas Crane. Born the 8th of November, 1800, who served five years in the Georgia legislature and never lost a day and dies in the full faith of the Methodist doctrine and in full hope, to which church he wills $50.'" In conclusion the testator requests "to be buried on the highest hill in the graveyard with the honors of war, a colonel's salute."—Law Notes.

A Pillar In Venice.

At a corner of St. Mark's church in Venice, the one nearest the ducal palace, there has been standing since the eleventh century a pillar of red porphyry carved with the portraitures of four noble gentlemen of Albania. In fact they were brothers who went to Venice in a ship laden with vast wealth. One couple plotted against the other to secure all the treasure and at a feast each duo of plotters poisoned the other. The signory of Venice seized upon their goods. In commemoration of so unbrotherly a conspiracy and as a warning against avarice the unique and exquisitely carved pillar was erected.

The Sudanese Baby.

A Sudanese baby when dressed up in its best clothes is probably the most uncomfortable infant in the world. The coat or outer garment which fashion dictates should be worn reaches to the very heels. It is of heavy velvet, hanging in many folds. This, in turn, is adorned with countless buttons and bangles of brass, considerably adding to its weight. Its cap, in turn, is of the same material, similarly decorated and doubtless equally uncomfortable.

The Cocoanut.

Many pagan people regard the cocoanut as of divine origin because it is so useful. It supplies almost all their needs. With its trunk they build houses, with its leaves they thatch their roofs, the fiber of its shell they weave into clothes, the hard wood of the nuts they cut into bowls and saucers, its rind is their food, its milk is their drink, and its narcotic root they dry and smoke.

Sport In Ancient Rome.

In the palmy days of Rome the number of lions brought from Africa averaged 400 per year for nine years, and with these were leopards, tigers, hyenas, elephants, buffaloes and serpents almost without number. For several years there were 8,000 men employed in Africa in trapping wild animals to make sport for the people of Rome.

Extreme Curiosity.

The fourteen-year-old son of a respectable Jew in Warsaw hanged himself the other day. He left a note, saying: "I have hanged myself out of mere curiosity. I could not help myself. I had to find out what they were doing in the other world."—Jewish World.

Both Took Pains.

Young Wife—I took great pains with that cucumber salad, John, and I hope you enjoyed it. Husband (anxiously)—I'm afraid, my dear, that I took great pains with it too.

Emphatic.

First Clubman—A physician should take life easy.

Second Clubman—Some of them do.—Schoolmaster.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of Indigestion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

No Confederate Supreme Court.

"It is a curious fact," said a New Orleans man, "that the Confederate congress never created a supreme court. The matter was before the Richmond congress, but no statute was ever passed authorizing such a tribunal.

"It was in a debate over this very topic in the Confederate senate that the personal encounter between Ben Hill of Georgia and William L. Yancey of Alabama occurred. The senate was in executive session. The Georgia senator was speaking in favor of the creation of a court of last resort whose powers should in a way be limited. Yancey looked on this idea with disfavor, and during the course of Hill's remarks he interrupted with the insulting statement that Hill had given utterance to a lie. No sooner had he used the offensive word than Hill, picking up an inkstand, hurled it with great force at his defamer. The glass struck Yancey over the eye, inflicting a severe wound, but doing him no permanent injury, although stories were long current that the blow finally caused his death."—Washington Post.

The Value of a Word.

As soon as the apartment house was ready for occupancy the janitor placed a "Rented" sign in several of the second and third story windows. When the agent saw the placards he said a good many things not exactly complimentary to the discretion of the janitor.

"What did you stick all those notices up for?" he asked.

"Because," was the reply, "the apartments are really rented. I thought it a good plan to let folks know they were going off so quickly."

"That is all right in principle," said the agent, somewhat mollified, "but you didn't go about it in the right way. That is not the proper kind of a notice. Never use the word 'rented' in a high class apartment. Always say 'leased.' It makes a better impression. 'Rented' sounds cheap. Any agent who wants his apartments to bring a big price will tell you that."—New York Press.

The Short And.

Brewer says the sign & is called "anders, ampers or amprus." It is sometimes called "short and." In olden times it was known as ampersand, but that word long ago fell into disuse. It is simply a contracted and rapidly made form of the Latin et. The name ampersand is derived from "and, per see and"—that is, a single symbol which in itself is and. Ampersand, meaning &, is used in chapter 21 of "Adam Bede" (1859); also in a poem in Punch of April 17, 1869. The first stanza in the poem alluded to is as follows:

Of all the types in a printer's hand
Commend me to the ampersand,
For he's the gentleman (seems to me)
Of the typographical companie.
Oh, my nice little ampersand,
My graceful, swanlike ampersand,
Nothing that Cadmus ever planned
Equals my elegant ampersand!

Prussian Dairymaids.

In the great Elbing dairies in west Prussia the dairy maids are not permitted to wear corsets. The different grades of proficiency are indicated by the caps worn. The milkmaids wear white caps, the pupils white also, with the addition, however, of black velvet bands, and the dairy teachers caps with silver lace. Many daughters of the landed nobility take a course in this work, but all alike wear the uniform prescribed. This is not a skirt, but waist and knickerbockers. It is found that this is the most cleanly and comfortable and serviceable in an occupation subject to various accidents.

Risk Versus Security.

There never was a harder master than the uncertain. "Nothing venture nothing win" is a true proverb, and sometimes it is a good guiding principle. If a single question and not a general principle were under discussion we might say that the conditions warrant a venture. As a rule we are profoundly convinced that a sure dollar is better than a possible $10; that comfort is always preferable to wealth in a lottery. The one thing to be avoided above all others is instability of income. This is not to suggest that under all conditions a man should prefer the settled and sure.—Independent.

Strictly True.

"Are you sure that is an orphan asylum across the way?" asked the stranger within the gates.

"Certainly," answered the native.

"But a policeman just told me it was an old ladies' home," protested the stranger.

Italian Country Dance.

In Italy when the country men and women dance together the first thing they do is to toss off their shoes, if they wear any. A man does not go up to a girl and ask if she will dance, but he fixes his eye upon her from a distance and nods. She nods in return, and then both kick off their shoes, advance toward each other and begin to dance.

Just the Place.

Young Roller—I think I'll spend that money I saved up. I've been thinking of a trip to England. His Mother—But you were to save that for a rainy day. Young Roller—Well, I'm going to London. I'll be sure to find a rainy day there.—Philadelphia Press.

The Unvarnished Fact.

He—Arctic explorers are the safest men in the world to trust yourself to. She—Why so? He—They are always cool in the time of greatest danger.

Of the Same Race.

The strongest minded woman must face the fact that she is of the same race as man.—London Globe.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and save his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Nature Needs But Little.

Nature needs only a Little Early Riser now and then to keep the bowels clean, the liver active, and the system free from bile, headaches, constipation, etc The famous little pills "Early Risers" are pleasant in effect and perfect in action. They never gripe or sicken, but tone and strengthen the liver and kidneys. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
